N. E. EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCES SCHEDULED FOR THIS WEEK-END

Conventions of Catholic Educators Saturday; NFCCS Congress to be Held Fri., Sat., Sun.

Language Teachers To Meet at H.C.

New England's unit of the National Catholic Educational Association has announced plans for a series of conventions for teachers in various fields from its member colleges. At these meetings the educators will discuss problems of modern Catholic college teaching, and will strive to encourage greater unity and cooperation among New England institutions.

On Saturday, April 30, Holy Cross College will play host to the first such meeting of the Modern Language Section. Dr. Francis P. O'Hara of the faculty will act as chairman for the day's program. Rev. James L. Brennan, S.J., also of the faculty, will represent Holy Cross as chairman at the English Section convention to be held on the same day at Emmanuel College. Discussions and lectures on philosophy and religion will be held at Providence College; on the social sciences at Regis College; and on the natural sciences at Boston College.

Very Rev. John A. O'Brien, S.J., will deliver the Address of Welcome to the gathering of modern language teachers in his capacity as Chairman of the New England unit of the N.C.-E.A. The principal speakers will be Rev. Armand DesAutels, A.A., Vice-President of Assumption College, and Prof. Francis M. Rogers, Chairman of the Department of Romance Languages and Literature at Harvard University.

Fr. DesAutels is a native of Fall River, Massachusetts. He attended Assumption High School and College and was ordained in France in 1929.

3RD N. E. CONFERENCE OF NFCCS STARTS FRIDAY IN BOSTON

Twenty New England Catholic colleges will have an opportunity to observe activities of the NFCCS this weekend as the New England Region holds its third annual Congress starting tomorrow evening and closing on Sunday, in Boston.

The Hotel Bradford is the scene of opening sessions beginning tomorrow at 8:15 p.m. More than 2000 students from both NFCCS and the Newman group will attend the opening meeting at the Bradford.

Three brief speeches, glee club selections, and the key-note address by Archbishop Cushing will form the business program. An informal dance with music by Bartholomew will take place from 11 p.m. until 1 a.m.

On Saturday at Boston College, Chestnut Hill, workshop groups will conduct panels.

Student Government

John F. X. Kerwin, Holy Cross delegate to the NFCCS, will speak at this session. Main speaker will be the Hon. John J. Connolly, head justice of the Massachusetts Juvenile Court.

Father William Ferree, S.M., of Dayton, Ohio, will be the featured speaker at the Catholic Action panel.

In the B.C. radio workshop, a panel will be held on radio. Speakers include Rev. Charles McIsaac from the St.

SOPHS ENVISION BANNER NIGHT

Smoker Features Food And a Galaxy of Stars

On Wednesday evening, May 4, as previously announced, the Sophomore Class will hold their Smoker at the Eden Gardens at eight o'clock. This Smoker is the principal social event of the year for the Class of 1951. Richard T. O'Rourke, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, promises that the evening will be a smashing success. The price of admission is seventy-five cents, and for six bits this show looms as the biggest bargain of the year.

Jim Moran, our new line coach imported from Niagara U., is signed up as guest speaker for the show. This will be Coach Moran's first appearance before Holy Cross students since his arrival on the hill.

One of the highlights of the Smoker will be the presentation of the St. Louis-Holy Cross 1948 Sugar Bowl basketball movie. This will be the film's premiere before a Holy Cross audience.

Among those starring on the entertainment program are Virginia Hauer, enchanting night club warbler; the tap dancing team of Kelly & Wilson; and the popular magician and comedy star, Manny Williams. Many gifted members from the Sophomore Class will also exhibit their talents. Bobby Dittmeyer is the evening's M.C.

MUSIC CLUBS TOUR OVER EASTER TIME VERY SUCCESSFUL

The coming of the Easter Vacation brought the high spot on the schedule of the Holy Cross Music Clubs, their annual Easter tour. This year's proved to be as successful and as enjoyable as any yet undertaken in the hundred year history of the clubs.

Starting last Wednesday evening at Springfield's beautiful Community Center, the Clubs lived up to all expectations, thrilling the capacity crowd with one of their finest concerts to date. The "Crusaders" supplied the music for the dance that followed the concert, and their mellow notes made the evening a completely successful one.

The Plainfield, New Jersey concert was very similar to that in Springfield. A very large and receptive audience found the Glee Club and Philharmonic in excellent voice and tune. After the affair the members returned to the private homes of people who had very generously volunteered to house them for the night.

By morning all eyes were turned east toward New York, high spot of the tour. The Cascades Room of the Biltmore Hotel supplied the setting and although the weather was disappointing, the promise of a fine evening of entertainment was enough to attract a large audience. The Music Clubs

Hal McIntyre and Orchestra Signed To Play For Senior Ball June 8

Littlefield Florists to Decorate Kimball Into Spectacular Dance Site With Flowers, Palms

HAL MCINTYRE, popular orchestra leader, who has been signed to play for the Senior Ball, June 8.

DATE BOOKLETS TO ADD TO EVENING'S NOVELTY FEATURES

Hal McIntyre, his saxophone, and his famous dance orchestra will provide the dreamy ballads for the Senior Ball, which will be held in Kimball Hall from nine to two on Wednesday evening, June 8th. After leaving Glenn Miller's orchestra, Hal formed a band, which was destined to delight music-lovers in America and Europe. From the Glen Island Casino to Europe with the U.S.O. and back to the Palladium in Hollywood, Hal's group of M.G.M. recording artists won success and acclaim.

Littlefield's Florists, here in town, will once again transform Kimball into a fairy land of beauty and enchantment. Soft lights will sparkle on the pool, palm trees and garlands of fragrant flowers. We don't want to spoil the surprise that will be yours that night as you walk into Kimball, so that is enough said about the surroundings.

And of course there are other pleasures awaiting you and your date that evening. A copy of the much anticipated Senior Ball Booklet will be

JUNIOR PROM PLANS SETTLED

Day Off Saturday for Juniors; Dance in Eve

Chairman Ed Chandler and the Junior Prom Committee have completed final plans for what looms as the week-end of the year at Holy Cross. Final details were ironed out over the holidays and all is in readiness for a top notch affair.

Chandler reports that the ticket sale has been progressing steadily and will undoubtedly be a success when the G.I. checks start pouring into the P.O. next week. The Dean has promised the traditional Saturday holiday for juniors.

The Purple Key and Outing Clubs have completed their plans for the Saturday after the prom. The Key promises a top notch dance at the Hillcrest Country Club in Leicester at $1.20 a couple. There will only be 200 tickets available and these are for the first 200 juniors to sign up. Other classes will be admitted only after every junior has had an opportunity for a ticket.

Ticket Sale Monday

The sale will start next Monday after the noon meal in the Post Office. Each junior must show his prom bid receipt and only one will be sold to each individual junior.

The H.C. baseball team will be host to the Dartmouth nine on Fitton Field on Saturday afternoon while the Outing Club, under the direction of John Dowd, will provide a picnic locale for anyone interested. Original plans for an organized outing have been dropped. Final details of the Outing Club's plan will be found on

'Show-Off' Next Dramatic Play

Moynagh to Star Next Monday and Tuesday

John Moynagh will strut the Fenwick stage as George Kelly's famous "Show-off" next Monday and Tuesday evenings, when the Holy Cross Dramatic Society presents an all-senior cast in its final production of the current season. Fresh from a triumph in last fall's production of "The Rivals", Moynagh will portray Aubrey Piper, well-known liar, braggart, and egotist, whose very consistency as a "Show-off" has made him a favorite with playhouse audiences for twenty-five years.

Father Frederick Gallagher will direct the play. The inimitable imitator, Jerry Amtrani will take the part of Mr. Gill, while Charles Crowley, also of "The Rivals" fame will be cast in the role of Joe. Frank Judge, better known for his radio antics, makes his local stage debut as Mr. Fisher, and Mike Masterpool, popular author, poet, and comedian will play Mr. Rogers. Joe McKernan will round out the male portion of the cast as Frank Hyland.

The feminine lead will be taken by Mrs. Vincent A. Tesell of the Worcester Players Club, who will play Mrs.

LIFE GETS TEDIOUS

Amid the frightened voices squealing in terror against the "bellicose" implications of the North Atlantic Pact, a group of 22 Protestant ministers and theologians bleated their fears in a Good Friday statement two weeks ago decrying the Treaty as a "continuance of the cold war in a divided world". A random perusal of this blue-ribbon roster reveals that Edwin McNeil Poteat of the First Baptist Church of Raleigh, North Carolina, was among those affixing their signatures to this courageous rebellion against "supinely underwriting national policy". Rev. Poteat is to threats of possible war against Soviet Russia as the learned and eloquent, if occasionally biased, Rev. Oxnam is to the Catholic Church—Anathema! Both of these high-ranking dignitaries are outspoken in their unprecedented version of logic. Both shame the bulldog in tenacity. Both cause irreparable harm to the gullible and uninformed who may succumb to their subtle misrepresentations of fact. To both, and to others of their ilk, we plead, "Come on, boys, change the record."

QUEEN OF HOLY CROSS

In a few days April will be over and the month of May will be at Holy Cross once more. May has always been a special month for all Holy Cross men because it is the month of Mary, the Mother of God. Since our college has been dedicated to Our Lady, it is only natural that we, her sons, do something extra during this month to show her the deep love which we bear for her and for her Divine Son. During May it is the custom of the Student Body to gather at Mary's shrine each night after supper to recite the Rosary together. This Sunday night will mark the beginning of the Sodality's May devotions in honor of our Queen. All of the student body should make an earnest effort to attend these exercises, not only this Sunday night, but every night. It isn't too great a sacrifice to go out of our way for Mary. Added to our Masses and Communions, the saying of the Rosary each night will show Our Blessed Mother how much we love her and how grateful we are to her. We are sure that a good part of the Student Body will be kneeling before the Blessed Virgin's image this Sunday night and every night of May.

IN APPRECIATION

Last night, Crusader Council, Knights of Columbus marked its twentieth year at Holy Cross with an anniversary banquet. The TOMAHAWK, at this time, would like to express the appreciation of the student body to Crusader Council for all that it has done for Holy Cross, and to Fr. Joseph Busam, S. J., Chaplain, Financial Secretary Frank Miller, and Treasurer Frank Gallagher, whose long years of service have contributed greatly to the Council's national eminence.

SLIPS THAT PASS

In our last issue we exhorted our readers to combat among other things the forces of theism. Needless to say our private gremlin in charge of misprints is responsible for the stand. We were, are, and will be staunch defenders of theism. Just for the record let us say that the word should have been atheism.

Nat Urso Named Managing Editor

Hewes Moves to Sports; Donovan News Editor

Editor-in-Chief William A. Eagan, Jr., has announced the following changes in the staff of the TOMAHAWK. Natale L. Urso, a member of the Class of '50 has been appointed Managing Editor of the school publication. Nat, a resident of Westerly, R. I., has been Rewrite Editor on the paper up to his new appointment. He is an active member of Crusader Council, Knights of Columbus and is a pre-med student. The Assistant Managing Editor is Charles F. Keenan, '51, a resident of Milton, Mass., and a member of the Student Congress.

Thomas F. Hewes of Needham, Mass. has moved from his post of News Editor and has replaced Jack McNally, who resigned from the staff to accept the editorship of the 1950 Purple Patcher, as Assistant Sports Editor. Replacing Hewes as News Editor is Raymond E. Donovan, a Sophomore and former Campus Radio News Editor of the TOMAHAWK. Ray is also the Vice-President of the New England Region of the NFCCS and is a native of Lowell, Mass.

The duty of gathering and editing news for broadcast over WCHC has been assumed by Donald C. Agnew and John J. Kapp, Freshmen, who have been appointed Campus Radio News Editors. Don, from Brooklyn, N. Y. and Jack, of Elmhurst, N. Y., have been working with Ray Donovan and are well acquainted with their new duties.

DREAM GIRL

*She was truly lovely — a beauty to see,
And I felt myself melt as she looked at me;*

With her head held high and her patriotic air,

Her immaculate dress with the right kind of flair;

On perfume she floated, on feathers she'd walk,

Her very presence robbed me of talk;

*I timidly strolled to stand by her side,
And envisioned her being my own true bride;*

But my castles came tumbling, my love was usurped,

She lost all her charm the second she burped!

College Daze

By AL. CANEDO

During the holidays we received a copy of the San Francisco Foghorn, student publication of the University of San Francisco. The date line read "March 25, 1949." As you all know the Hilltoppers won the N.I.T. Basketball tournament, after battling their way through some very tough opposition. Well, this particular issue was dedicated to the victorious team, and never had a student publication crossing this desk shown as much enthusiasm over a victory as did these San Francisco boys. There were four pages to the issue, and no less than three of them were devoted to covering the events which preceded and followed the great victory. The whole paper was done up in green ink, and the pages were the size of the Boston Herald or Globe, or any other big newspaper you can think of. (P.S. Everyone in San Francisco is certain their boys will be back in the tournament next year, and well they might, because the entire team will be back, with a new addition in the person of 6-ft. 7-in. Hal Boyle.)

And now leaving the serious side of the news for a few moments we return to humor (ha, ha), stolen from the

OVER THE HILL

By RICK O'SHEA

Well, here we are again. And believe me it was a mighty fine vacation. But now it's time for that home stretch drive, the last one on the hill for many of us. All of which reminds me that you will only have to see my column take up space for two more issues.

After that double windup I guess it's time for the first pitch. And I might as well get this off my chest. Did you hear about the two men on a two-man submarine. One fellow turned to the other and said: "Hey, you." The other fellow turned around and said: "Who, me?"

O.K., so I won't give you any more of that humor(?). Here's a straight pitch. Washington is supposedly holding up any aid to Tito until Archbishop Stepinac is released from prison. Can't vouch for that but the source seems reliable.

The Russians who at various times have claimed that they invented the first telephone and the first steam engine, now claim that they can build skyscrapers that won't sway. No decadent Empire State Buildings swaying in the breeze for them.

Have you seen the TV Hoopers lately? Milton Berle is still far in the lead with an 80 but Arthur Godfrey's 59.3 is being challenged by Ed Sullivan's Toast of the Town, moving up fast on the outside with a 55.9.

Many of the young chicks about town have started wearing hats on their nights out. Also many of the young swain are back in the hat-owning category. But it will be a cold day before yours truly takes to wearing a fedora. And that doesn't mean I intend to start next winter.

Can't remember when I've heard as swell a score as that from "South Pacific". A Wonderful Guy; There's Nothin' Like A Dame; Bali H'ai; Some Enchanted Evening; Honey Bun and I'm Gonna Wash That Guy Right Out of My Hair. These songs will be in an album recorded by the original cast due on the market the first of the month.

The sequel to "Sitting Pretty" has finally arrived. It's currently at the Loew's Poli in town. Critics seem to think that if it wasn't for Clifton Webb, the picture would be a flop. To show that the public approves of Mr. Webb, please note that "Mr. Belvedere Goes to College" grossed $162,000 Easter week at the Roxy. A rather tidy sum.

Around Boston they're currently calling him "Tex" Monroe because of the consistent Western flavor of his last few discs of which the top seller seems to be the ghostly "Riders in the Sky." "Tex" Monroe in order to live up to his new nickname will soon journey to the coast to star in a western picture. Incidentally a real Tex, Benecke by name, has again announced that he has re-organized his band to sound more like the old Glenn Miller outfit. Let's hope so. There was never a band like Glenn's old one.

To the Seniors! Anyone without a job by the end of May should consider applying to the hamlet of Evarts, Ky., for the job of Police Chief. They're on their sixth one now all within the space of a few months. In fact one of you Seniors might consider running for mayor of the same village since they ran their last one out of town a few days ago.

Merchandisers are seriously considering cutting sex and all those exotic titles out of the perfume ads. They think too many girls believe that perfume is for occasions and not for every day. Perfumers claim this isn't the right idea.

POPULARITY PLUS . . .

The following rules for being popular on the campus were recently set up at Canisius College in order to give everybody a chance:

1. Own a car. 2. Personality. 3. Own a car. 4. Own a car. 5. Be able to converse on a college level. 6. Own a car.

N.B. If the car is a convertible, rules 2 and 5 may be omitted.

FRESHMAN DEBATERS TACKLE PROBLEM OF CIVIL RIGHTS

Approaching the end of their season, the Freshmen debaters held a discussion, last night, on the topic, "Resolved: Should President Truman's Civil Rights program be passed by the Congress of the United States." Because of its popularity this subject was held over from the previous debate.

The teams discussing the topic were composed of John Coleman and Tom Moran on the Affirmative and Pat O'Donohue and Bob Mitchell on the Negative.

Coleman and Moran, representing the pro side of the question, voiced the opinion that the South definitely needs this kind of plan now, to correct the indecent treatment of the negroes. The opposition, O'Donohue and Mitchell, stated that the problem was not as acute as publicized and that the Civil Rights program would only interfere.

In summing up their opinion on the

K. OF C.

The Knights of Columbus admits both Associate and Insurance Members. Associate Members are normally admitted only after the age of 26 has been reached. At the present time, however, no Insurance can be received in Massachusetts because of conflict with the laws of Massachusetts. Therefore only Associate Members have been eligible in this state during the last year.

However, every effort is being made to change the laws in the state and in all likelihood such changes will take place in the near future. When these changes come, the rule of admitting only Insurance Members under 26 years of age will be in effect again.

Hence, if any members of the student body under 26 years of age wish to join the Knights of Columbus as Associate Members, they should make application immediately and receive at least the first degree. If the number of first degree members will warrant, second and third degrees will also be run again this year.

Student Gov't.

Elections for next year's Student Government officers will be held in the very near future. The President shall be elected from the Junior Resident Students; the Vice-President must be chosen from the Junior Day Students; the Secretary comes from the Sophomore Resident class while the Treasurer will be a Freshman Resident Student. The elections will be held within the next three weeks and those elected will take office next year at the beginning of the school year. Date of nominations will be announced as soon as it is released by Joe O'Connor, Chairman of the Election Committee.

The Discipline Office wishes to remind students who have not paid their room deposit fee that the deadline for payment is May 1. It will be assumed that students who have not paid by that time are not returning to school, and the spaces will be turned over to the Freshman Dean.

His topic will be, "Teaching Modern Languages As Living Languages."

Dr. Rogers attended Cornell and Harvard and took his Ph.D. in 1940 with a traveling fellowship in Europe. During the war he served as an officer in the U.S. Marine Corps, participating in landings in the Mediterranean Theatre. He will speak on "The Major in Modern Languages."

The speakers will be followed in the afternoon by several panel discussions. These will be presided over by teachers selected from the delegates. Rev. John C. Proctor, S.J. will lead the discussion on Freshman and Sophomore Greek while Rev. J. Gerard Mears, S.J., presides over talks on the Fine Arts.

The following committee of faculty members will aid in the various functions of the convention: Fr. Jeremiah Donovan, Dr. S. Edward Flynn, Fr. Leon Fitzgerald, Dr. Robert McNerney, Mr. Joseph Cordeiro, Mr. William Bowen, Mr. J. Valentine Noble, Mr. Alfred Boursy, Mr. George Moran, Fr. Clarence Sloan, Mr. James Mahoney, Fr. Casey, Fr. At the Liturgy workshop, chaired by the Misses Pauline M. Skerry and Marion B. Hoar of Our Lady of the Elms College, Mr. John Julian Ryan, noted lecturer and liturgist, will be key-note speaker.

At the international relations panel the featured speaker is Dr. Ralph Hodgeman who will present a kodachrome travelogue and speak on European summer student camps.

On Saturday evening at Jordan Hall in Boston, the NFCCS will inaugurate the first in a series of annual public service lectures. Rev. James Raile, S.J., former Hungarian Catholic church leader, will address the group. The lecture which begins at 8 p.m. will have as its subject the Mindszenty case.

May Day Mass

Final congress activities close on Sunday. In the morning, beginning at 9 a.m. a special student's May Day observance will be held at Holy Cross Cathedral. Archbishop Cushing will celebrate a Pontifical Mass and devotions will be held to Our Lady of Fatima. New England Catholic students are invited and urged to attend and make an open manifestation of their faith.

A general business session at Emmanuel College will open the last congress meeting at Emmanuel College. Reports from the workshops and commission chairmen will be given and election of regional officers will take place.

The remaining Junior Rings will not be delivered until after May 7.

The students and faculty of the College extend their deepest sympathies to Robert Bowe, '50, and John McMahon, '51, on the death of their fathers. They will be remembered in our prayers.

Elections of Officers to Be Held in Near Future

The Holy Cross Student Congress has announced the results of their recent collection which was held prior to the Easter Vacation. The members of the Congress wish to thank the Student Body for their whole-hearted co-operation in the highly successful venture. Treasurer Dave Sullivan has announced that a sum of over two hundred dollars has been thus far realized. This will enable the Congress to pay its N.F.C.C.S. dues and also will provide a sum which can be carried over to next year's Congress.

The last meeting of the Congress was held on Thursday evening, April 7, 1949. At this meeting Pres. Atchison announced that Bob Leary of Carlin II had been appointed chairman of the Social Activities Committee to succeed Dan Moore, Wheeler IV who recently resigned. Bob will be assisted by Leon Kelley who has agreed to accept the difficult task of formulating next year's Social Calendar.

given to each person attending. The book is designed to appeal to both the student and his date, and it has already stirred up great excitement from those few who have seen it in its formative stages. Seniors are again reminded that their date's name and home town will appear in the Booklet. It is necessary that those who plan to attend the Ball give this information to the committee before May 9th. As revenue increases, the committee will announce other features to be included in the Booklet; unusual novelties, which will make this Booklet a treasured souvenir of an evening which will never fade from your memory.

There will also be plenty of refreshments available for those who desire them. As an additional service, the committee will place orders for corsages with selected florists.

Fr. Busam, Mr. Miller, Mr. Gallagher Honored at K. of C. 20th Anniversary

Two decades of Columbianism at Holy Cross received their due recognition last night, when Crusader Council, No. 2706, Knights of Columbus, celebrated its twentieth anniversary with a banquet at the Eden Gardens Restaurant on Franklin Street.

Over two hundred members and officers of the order attended the affair, which was highlighted by the presentation of watches to three twenty year members of the council as a token of appreciation for their many years of faithful service. Grand Knight Lawrence X. Dalton presented the watches to Father Joseph F. Busam, S.J., Chaplain; Francis L. Miller, Financial Secretary; and Frank Gallagher, Treasurer, in behalf of the 480 members of Crusader Council.

Frank Cullen, chairman of the committee which arranged the banquet, was toastmaster. Featured speaker of the evening was State Secretary Joseph P. Lally, who reviewed the high points in the history of the Knights of Columbus. District Warden John Moynagh accepted a pen and pencil set for District Deputy Charles A. Grant, a Past Grand Knight of Crusader Council, who was unable to attend.

Retiring officers of the Council were presented with gold Crusader Council keys, engraved with their name and office. Those who received keys were Grand Knight Dalton, Deputy Grand Knight George C. Dagher, Richard A. Madden, Chancellor and Grand Knight-elect, Michael J. Morrill, Philip J. Molloy, Francis L. Miller, Frank Gallagher, Arthur C. Smith, Jr., Neil Collins, J. Robert Maney, William T. Dagher, Ralph J. Diverio, Arthur B. Kelly, Natale L. Urso, Michael C. O'Brien, Frank Cullen, and James J. Gallagher.

In accepting their gifts, Father Busam, Mr. Miller and Mr. Gallagher expressed their thanks to the members of the council and congratulated the student officers on their excellent job in helping to make the Council one of the finest in the order. Father Busam gave a brief resume of the history of the council since its birth in Fenwick Hall in 1929, and noted the fact that an all-student board of officers will run the council next year for the first time in history. Mr. Miller and Mr. Gallagher are charter members of the council, while Father Busam assumed office only a few months after its organization.

Easter Regional Dances Held With Top Financial and Social Success

Easter vacation dances met with great success according to TOMAHAWK correspondents who said that the regional committees are very well satisfied with the financial and social successes.

The Commonwealth Country Club was the scene of a gala Boston Club dance. One hundred and twenty-five couples danced to the music of Hal Reeves and his orchestra. Ron O'Hanley was chairman of the affair with Art Fair, club prexy, as honorary chairman.

Down in New Jersey on April 19th about one hundred couples took part in the vacation festivities. Music was by Jimmy Dorsey and his nationally-known ensemble. Meadowbrook, the Cedar Grove rendezvous, run by Frank Dailey, was the high spot of the evening's activities. Jack Griffin and Dick Berry served on the dance committee.

The Jesuit Alumni and Holy Cross Undergraduate clubs of New Hampshire got together on April 23rd to produce another top notch success. Fifty couples enjoyed the evening in the main ballroom of the Carpenter Hotel in Manchester.

Len Cody reports that the Prom Queen competition is getting tougher every day but there is still time to enter your best girl. Who knows? She might make you king of the prom.

Bob Ware's decoration committee has plans to practically hide the gym in a bevy of evergreens, trelisses, and a real fountain and pool. He promises to transform the basketball courts into a Garden of Babylon.

Tuxedo Chairman Frank Caponegro emphasizes that the time is drawing short to get down to Loughlin and Mauke at 2 Pleasant St. across from the City Hall.

Joseph Coleman, '50, was the lucky winner of a free ticket to the Prom on the weekly WCHC Quiz Program. The bid was presented to Coleman by Chairman Ed Chandler at the conclusion of the Tuesday evening broadcast.

Corsage orders for the Junior Prom will be taken this week by the members of the Committee. Each Dorm will be canvassed. We would appreciate your cooperation for your early orders. Special prices have been obtained by the Committee.

B.J.F. MEN IN FINAL LAP OF DEBATING SEASON OF '48-'49

The B.J.F. Debating Society began its final series of intercollegiate debates last night as John Kallaugh and Dick Buellesbach swept a Boston College affirmative team in the first of two home and home debates. The two teams meet again tonight in Dorchester.

Federal Aid was the topic under discussion last night and it proved a lucky one for the H.C. speakers who had to be satisfied with a split decision last year. The intercollegiate question will be the subject tomorrow night also. Lou Introcasso and Joe Hallinan are upholding the Holy Cross side in the debate which will be presented before a Dorchester Holy Name Society group. Holy Cross, upholding the negative side, was the winner.

The runoffs for Junior debating champs will take place on next Monday in the B.J.F. debating rooms in the library. In the debate between members of the Junior class—Lou Introcasso, Joe Hallinan, John Flaherty and Bill Welch—the two best speakers will be selected. These two men will meet the undefeated Senior team of Dick Buellesbach and John Kallaugh on Wednesday for a $25 prize.

The Oratorical finals will take place on May 10 in Kimball Auditorium for six members of the student body who qualified in the eliminations. These were held on Tuesday in the society rooms. The six men chosen to compete on May 10 are: John Hurley, Eugene Grisanti, Emmet Ryan, Joseph Hallinan, Thomas McMahon, and John North.

Library Scene Of Art Exhibit

Autographs, Paintings
Manuscripts, Among
Rare Objects Viewed

On Monday, April 11, from 1 to 5 in the afternoon the Dinand Library Collection was offered to the student body for exhibition. Under the direction of Father Clarence E. Sloane, S.J., Librarian, the exhibit was set up in the Main Museum and in the Louise Imogene Guiney Memorial Room for the encouragement of student appreciation of the fine arts.

The display included a collection of oil paintings of the old masters, rare manuscripts, coins, books, stamps and the 17th century, Jesuitana collection. Included in the works that were displayed were "The Duke of Sette" by Rembrandt, "Gentleman" by Velasquez and a series of Landscapes by Francesco Romanelli. Among the rare books, an autographed copy of a Latin manuscript once owned by Ben Johnson was on exhibit. Visitors also had the opportunity to view some autographs of famous men such as George Washington, John Cardinal Newman and Gilbert K. Chesterton.

Also on exhibit, which attracted a large number, was the Louise Imogene Guiney Museum. Books about her as well as those reviewed by her were shown. This room contains one of the most complete collections of Guiney material in existence.

These displays, will be held with sufficient frequency so that all students may see the outstanding treasures of the college from time to time.

The recently elected officers of the Freshman Class are, seated, Jim Thornton, President; standing, Foster Burbank, Vice-President; Bob Collins, Treasurer; and Charlie Cahill, Secretary.

Worcester Undergraduate Club Plans For Parents Night, May 8, Completed

The annual Parents Night program, sponsored by the Worcester Undergraduate Club, is expected to attract one of its largest crowds on Sunday evening, May 8, when the "Day Hops" take time to entertain their parents, relatives and friends on "the Hill".

According to Co-chairmen John E. Bennison and Henry A. Sullivan, more than 300 reservations have been placed with them by members of the club who plan on attending that evening with their guests.

Always an enjoyable evening, the Parents Night affairs have left little to be desired in the minds of all those who attend. The evening's program begins at 7.30 p.m. with the students and invited guests attending Benediction in the Chapel. Following Benediction a one-act play will be presented in Kimball Auditorium, and a program consisting of music and skits will also be offered by members of the Worcester group.

Frosh to Aid Liaison

James Thornton, President of the Class of '52, fell right in step with the "first" epidemic, which seems to have hit the Cross this year. He joined the ranks of "stag" dances, the Winter Carnival and the Radio Workshop by appointing for the first time in the history of the College, a Freshman cabinet.

Along with Thornton, Foster Burbank, Vice-President, Robert Collins, Treasurer, and Charles Cahill, Secretary, voted on the cabinet, which will preside until the elections next year. Its main function will be to offer the suggestions and complaints of the students from different corridors.

The boarders who have been chosen are: Dennis Lyons, Daniel Valway, James Brennan, Robert Lawler, James Hayes, Robert McDonough, Edward Scully, William Casey, John Mulvehill and John Finnegan.

Two day-hop representatives were also chosen. They are Joseph Whalen and John Moynihan.

WALK, STOREHOUSE, AND VAULT FEATURE CAMPUS CHANGES

Under the auspices of the Maintenance Department and Fr. J. Leo Sullivan, its director, several important projects are presently being initiated on campus. A chemical storehouse and fire-proof vault for scholastic records are in process of construction.

Most extensive of these is the new chemical storehouse which is expected to be completed in about a week and which is located behind O'Kane. Specially designed for combustible materials, the building will be cinder-block structure with an insulated steel roof.

The fire-proof vault, which is to preserve records, will be constructed beneath the Dean's office. Provision has been made for heat and ventilation. As a safeguard against fire hazard the roof will consist of cement planks covered by a sand layer with a fire-door of structural steel.

To improve appearance and drainage before the library, a paved asphalt walk is scheduled for completion in the near future.

'48 GRADUATES NOW PLACED

All Now at Work or in Advanced Education

For the second year in succession, every member of the graduating class of Holy Cross College has been employed or accepted at graduate or professional schools, according to the annual report of the Placement Bureau for the year 1948, made public recently by Edward A. Kennedy, Jr., Placement Director.

One hundred sixty-seven members of the 1948 class are employed and 109 are studying for advanced degrees. Forty-three graduates are studying law, 7 medicine and 4 dentistry. Fifty others are working for masters degrees at various universities, and 5 are studying for the priesthood.

Forty members of the '48 class went into sales work, twenty-six into retailing and 13 into the insurance business. Fourteen became accountants, 6 teachers or teacher-coaches, and 5 newspapermen. Other occupations popular with the class of '48 were the utilities, industry, government, advertising, automobile agencies, banking, research, traffic, produce and credit.

Pointing out that the great majority of the graduates had obtained positions before they concluded their courses, Mr. Kennedy stated in his report "employers are turning in greater numbers than ever before to the traditional liberal arts colleges in their search for management trainees who offer a well-rounded development of faculties and personality, a flexibility of mind, imagination and interests, and a high standard of social responsibility, rather than merely specialized studies and technical training."

Elections of Officers to Be Held in Near Future

The Holy Cross Student Congress has announced the results of their recent collection which was held prior to the Easter Vacation. The members of the Congress wish to thank the Student Body for their whole-hearted operation in the highly successful venture. Treasurer Dave Sullivan has announced that a sum of over two hundred dollars has been thus far realized. This will enable the Congress to pay its N.F.C.C.S. dues and also will provide a sum which can be carried over to next year's Congress.

The last meeting of the Congress was held on Thursday evening, April 7, 1949. At this meeting Pres. Atchison announced that Bob Leary of Carlin II had been appointed chairman of the Social Activities Committee to succeed Dan Moore, Wheeler IV who recently resigned. Bob will be assisted by Leon Kelley who has agreed to accept the difficult task of formulating next year's Social Calendar.

Present at the April 7th meeting were the latest members of the Congress, the Freshmen representatives, Tom O'Connor, O'Kane IV, Bob Fair, Fenwick IV, Frank Matrango, O'Kane III and Jim Hickey, Wheeler V. Representing the Day Students are Dick Bonofiglio and Jim Fitzgibbons.

The book is designed to appeal to both the student and his date, and it has already stirred up great excitement from those few who have seen it in its formative stages. Seniors are again reminded that their date's name and home town will appear in the Booklet. It is necessary that those who plan to attend the Ball give this information to the committee before May 9th. As revenue increases, the committee will announce other features to be included in the Booklet; unusual novelties, which will make this Booklet a treasured souvenir of an evening which will never fade from your memory.

There will also be plenty of refreshments available for those who desire them. As an additional service, the committee will place orders for corsages with selected florists.

Fr. Busam, Mr. Miller, Mr. Gallagher

Honored at K. of C. 20th Anniversary

Two decades of Columbianism at Holy Cross received their due recognition last night, when Crusader Council, No. 2706, Knights of Columbus, celebrated its twentieth anniversary with a banquet at the Eden Gardens Restaurant on Franklin Street.

Over two hundred members and officers of the order attended the affair, which was highlighted by the presentation of watches to three twenty year members of the council as a token of appreciation for their many years of faithful service. Grand Knight Lawrence X. Dalton presented the watches to Father Joseph F. Busam, S.J., Chaplain; Francis L. Miller, Financial Secretary; and Frank Gallagher, Treasurer, in behalf of the 480 members of Crusader Council.

Frank Cullen, chairman of the committee which arranged the banquet, was toastmaster. Featured speaker of the evening was State Secretary Joseph P. Lally, who reviewed the high points in the history of the Knights of Columbus. District Warden John Moynagh accepted a pen and pencil set for District Deputy Charles A. Grant, a Past Grand Knight of Crusader Council, who was unable to attend.

Retiring officers of the Council were presented with gold Crusader Council keys, engraved with their name and office. Those who received keys were Grand Knight Dalton, Deputy Grand Knight George C. Dagher, Richard A. Madden, Chancellor and Grand Knight-elect, Michael J. Morrill, Philip J. Molloy, Francis L. Miller, Frank Gallagher, Arthur C. Smith, Jr., Neil Collins, J. Robert Maney, William T. Dagher, Ralph J. Diverio, Arthur B. Kelly, Natale L. Urso, Michael C. O'Brien, Frank Cullen, and James J. Gallagher.

In accepting their gifts, Father Busam, Mr. Miller and Mr. Gallagher expressed their thanks to the members of the council and congratulated the student officers on their excellent job in helping to make the Council one of the finest in the order. Father Busam gave a brief resume of the history of the council since its birth in Fenwick Hall in 1929, and noted the fact that an all-student board of officers will run the council next year for the first time in history. FRESHMAN DEBATERS TACKLE PROBLEM OF CIVIL RIGHTS

Approaching the end of their season, the Freshmen debaters held a discussion, last night, on the topic, "Resolved: Should President Truman's Civil Rights program be passed by the Congress of the United States." Because of its popularity this subject was held over from the previous debate.

The teams discussing the topic were composed of John Coleman and Tom Moran on the Affirmative and Pat O'Donohue and Bob Mitchell on the Negative.

Coleman and Moran, representing the pro side of the question, voiced the opinion that the South definitely needs this kind of plan now, to correct the indecent treatment of the negroes. The opposition, O'Donohue and Mitchell, stated that the problem was not as acute as publicized and that the Civil Rights program would only interfere.

In summing up their opinion on the

K. OF C.

The Knights of Columbus admits both Associate and Insurance Members. Associate Members are normally admitted only after the age of 26 has been reached. At the present time, however, no Insurance can be received in Massachusetts because of conflict with the laws of Massachusetts. Therefore only Associate Members have been eligible in this state during the last year.

However, every effort is being made to change the laws in the state and in all likelihood such changes will take place in the near future. When these changes come, the rule of admitting only Insurance Members under 26 years of age will be in effect again.

Hence, if any members of the student body under 26 years of age wish to join the Knights of Columbus as Associate Members, they should make application immediately and receive at least the first degree. If the number of first degree members will warrant, second and third degrees will also be run again this year.

discussion the judges decided that the affirmative side had the advantage.

Elections for next year's Student Government officers will be held in the very near future. The President shall be elected from the Junior Resident Students; the Vice-President must be chosen from the Junior Day Students; the Secretary comes from the Sophomore Resident class while the Treasurer will be a Freshman Resident Student. The elections will be held within the next three weeks and those elected will take office next year at the beginning of the school year. Date of nominations will be announced as soon as it is released by Joe O'Connor, Chairman of the Election Committee.

The Discipline Office wishes to remind students who have not paid their room deposit fee that the deadline for payment is May 1. It will be assumed that students who have not paid by that time are not returning to school, and the spaces will be turned over to the Freshman Dean.

Dr. Rogers attended Cornell and Harvard and took his Ph.D. in 1940 with a traveling fellowship in Europe. During the war he served as an officer in the U.S. Marine Corps, participating in landings in the Mediterranean Theatre. He will speak on "The Major in Modern Languages."

The speakers will be followed in the afternoon by several panel discussions. These will be presided over by teachers selected from the delegates. Rev. John C. Proctor, S.J. will lead the discussion on Freshman and Sophomore Greek while Rev. J. Gerard Mears, S.J., presides over talks on the Fine Arts.

The following committee of faculty members will aid in the various functions of the convention: Fr. Jeremiah Donovan, Dr. S. Edward Flynn, Fr. Leon Fitzgerald, Dr. Robert McNerney, Mr. Joseph Cordeiro, Mr. William Bowen, Mr. J. Valentine Noble, Mr. Alfred Boursy, Mr. George Moran, Fr. Clarence Sloan, Mr. James Mahoney, Fr. Casey, Fr. At the Liturgy workshop, chaired by the Misses Pauline M. Skerry and Marion B. Hoar of Our Lady of the Elms College, Mr. John Julian Ryan, noted lecturer and liturgist, will be key-note speaker.

At the international relations panel the featured speaker is Dr. Ralph Hodgeman who will present a kodachrome travelogue and speak on European summer student camps.

On Saturday evening at Jordan Hall in Boston, the NFCCS will inaugurate the first in a series of annual public service lectures. Rev. James Raile, S.J., former Hungarian Catholic church leader, will address the group. The lecture which begins at 8 p.m. will have as its subject the Mindszenty case.

May Day Mass

Final congress activities close on Sunday. In the morning, beginning at 9 a.m. a special student's May Day observance will be held at Holy Cross Cathedral. Archbishop Cushing will celebrate a Pontifical Mass and devotions will be held to Our Lady of Fatima. New England Catholic students are invited and urged to attend and make an open manifestation of their faith.

A general business session at Emmanuel College will open the last congress meeting at Emmanuel College. Reports from the workshops and commission chairmen will be given and election of regional officers will take place.

The remaining Junior Rings will not be delivered until after May 7.

The students and faculty of the College extend their deepest sympathies to Robert Bowe, '50, and John McMahon, '51, on the death of their fathers. They will be remembered in our prayers.

Cross Splits In Four Games During Easter Vacation; Top Bridgeport, Harvard; Lose to Boston Braves, Yale

Three Gift Runs in Ninth Gives Shellenbach 7-6 Victory Over Bees; Two Run Rally Edges Crimson in Home Opener; Drop 6-4 Game to Elis

The Holy Cross baseball team opened their season against college competition over the Easter vacation and also played exhibition games against the National League 1948 champions, the Boston Braves, and the Bridgeport Bees of the Class B Colonial League. The Crusaders split even in these four games, winning the first two, against Bridgeport and Harvard, and dropping the next two, against the Braves and Yale, before packing up for their two-game junket through upper New York State against Syracuse and Colgate earlier this week.

Beat Bridgeport, 7-6

Down at Bridgeport, April 16, the Crusaders received their Easter presents a day early when they scored three gift runs in the ninth inning to nose out the Bees, 7 to 6. After singles by Joe Frechette, Billy Porter and Bob Dittmeyer had loaded the bases in the ninth, Frank Mazuco, the Bridgeport pitcher, walked Frank Galvin to force in one run and then hit Eddie Polak and Ralph Gebhardt to push over the winning runs for the Cross.

Matty Formon, a Bridgeport resident, started in front of the home folk and pitched five innings, allowing four runs and four hits but had trouble with his control, issuing six walks. Dick Shellenbach came on in the sixth and gave up two runs on two hits before giving way to pinch-hitter Frechette and Tom Donovan pitched the ninth, saving the win for Shellenbach.

Formon Ices Crimson

The following Tuesday, a Patriots' Day crowd of almost a thousand watched the Cross score a 3 to 1 victory over Harvard in their Fitton Field opener. Once again it was Formon starting on the mound and the strapping right-hander went all the way this time, cooling the Crimson bats with three hits.

The Cross rallied to break a 1-1 tie in the seventh inning when Polak singled, Gebhardt sacrificed, Doc Lavery got on by an error, Polak holding second, and Joe Cunnane walked to load the bases. Bob Heon, a pinch hitter, walked to force in Polak, and after Formon struck out, Porter walked, sending in the second run. It was these bases on balls, 12 of them altogether, that plagued Ira Godin, the Crimson southpaw, and sent him to the showers after seven innings.

The Cross only collected five hits against Harvard, with Bob Dittmeyer, the sophomore left fielder who batted over .500 as a freshman second baseman last year, getting two of them. Porter, Polak and Cunnane were the others who hit safely. In the ninth inning of this game, Ralph Gebhardt, another sophomore outfielder, fell heavily on his shoulder in diving for a fly ball and suffered a double dislocation of the right shoulder. The injury puts Gebhardt on the shelf for this season and the question now comes up whether his rifle arm, that optimists like to compare with Carl Furillo's, will still have the power.

Bow before Yale Rally

Following the Braves' game, the Cross played Yale, Eastern N.C.A.A. champions the past two seasons, at Fitton Field, and after grabbing a three-run lead in the first inning, watched the Elis catch and pass them, with a two-run rally in the eighth giving the visiting Bulldogs a 6 to 4 win. Four errors by each team marked

BRAVES, WITH 18 HITS, WIN 8-2

The Boston Braves downed Holy Cross 8 to 2 in a well-played baseball game witnessed by about 3000 spectators. It was a close, tight struggle for eight innings but the Braves exploded in the ninth with four runs.

Dick Shellenbach started for the Purple and went seven innings, during which he gave up 12 hits and 4 runs, but was particularly effective in the clutch. Tom Donovan finished the game yielding 6 hits and four runs.

Johnny Beazley, Johnny Antonelli, and Bob Hall did the chucking for the Tribesmen, and yielded a total of 2 runs and 6 hits. Don Thompson led both teams in hitting with a perfect 4 for 4 for the day, while the Crusader's Bill Porter played a smooth defensive game, and contributed 2 hits.

The Braves took a 1 to 0 lead in the fourth on Thompson's double and Lakeman's single, but the Purple tied it in the home half when Frank Galvin singled, went to second on Polak's sacrifice and counted on Doc Lavery's double to left. The Braves scored 2 more in the fifth, one in the seventh, and four in the ninth to put the game on ice. The Crusaders tallied one in the last of the ninth on Frechette's three-bagger to right and Red Coyle's infield out.

The longest hits of the day were registered by Marv Rickert, who walked a 450-foot triple, and Geoff Heath, who smashed a 430-foot double to right center.

H. C. NINE EDGES SYRACUSE, COLGATE BY SAME MARGIN

Baseballers Chalk Up Two 2-1 Victories On Western Trip; Donovan, Formon Gain Wins

Breaking out of their two-game losing streak, the Holy Cross baseballers found their hosts in central New York very hospitable and captured two games by the identical margins of 2-1 from Syracuse and Colgate, Tuesday and yesterday.

Matty Formon, one-time occasional relief hurler, clinched his present post of No. 1 man on the mound staff as he repelled a strong Colgate nine at Hamilton yesterday with a sterling three hit performance. Seven hapless Red Raiders fell victims to the speed and slants of the Crusader tosser, while he issued but two free passes. Formon also aided his own cause with a long two bagger, the only extra base hit of the contest.

Despite a rainy drizzle in the fifth, the Purple fielding was very good and such support was necessary as Colgate's Charley Koblinkski allowed the Cross but five bingles, only two of which figured in the scoring.

Polak Scores First Run

The visiting Worcesterites grabbed an early lead in the top half of the second. Captain Eddie Polak singled to left and went to second as Bob "Doc" Lavery was thrown out at first on a slow infield roller. First Baseman Bob Hyatt muffed Bob Heon's short

FROSH TOP WORCESTER ACADEMY IN OPENING GAME SLUGFEST, 13-7

Six Run Rally in Fifth Inning Clinches Win As Dilling Goes Route for Purple Yearlings

Rolling up more runs in their opening game than the varsity has collected in four college games, the Holy Cross freshman baseball team romped to a 13-7 triumph over Worcester Academy to start the 1949 season on Fitton Field yesterday. Today, the cubs face Harvard at Cambridge.

Basketball Star Jim Dilling went the route for Hop Riopel's charges though touched for eight hits and giving up the same number of gratis tickets to first base. He fanned thirteen. The Purple Clubs, meanwhile, walloped his rival, Jackie Lonergan for fifteen safeties and tacked on six more walks, as the Academy stuck to the one hurler for the entire game.

Scoring three runs in the top of the fifth, the Hilltoppers took a 5-4 lead, but only until the Crusaders came to the plate again. The Cubs took a 10-5 lead after batting twelve men and scoring on two errors, a walk, and six consecutive singles.

Then Big Jim Dilling took control of the situation and tamed the Academy by allowing only two hits the remainder of the way. He was in trouble only in the seventh inning, when he allowed two runs.

CHANCES ON CAMBRIDGE CINDERS ARE GOOD

Finally swinging into the abbreviated but hectic spring sports season, the Purple athletes moved into action with a bang. Baseball, tennis and golf squads have already taken the field and track will add its bit on Saturday with that quadrangular at Cambridge.

Speaking of track, Bart Sullivan's team should have a good chance to cop that four-cornered battle. Harvard will probably be the favorite but the Johnnies will have to go some to trounce the Cross. In a dual meet a year ago, the Crimson was beaten in the running events and only won the meet on the basis of a very powerful showing in the field, a traditional stronghold of the Cantabs. However, the host Crimson is minus their two chief musclemen from the '48 crew, Sam Felton and Don Trimble, and will have plenty of trouble in collecting points in those events this season, with some competition due from B.U. and plenty from our own one man gang, George Gallogly.

ROUGH LINKS, SMOOTH COURTS

Babson did it again last Monday as the Wellesley Economists once again started the Crusader golfers off on the wrong foot in the opening match of the young season. Last year they did it 7-2 and this time 5-2. Those scores weren't too bad for this early in the season and Babson's veteran squad assisted by ace newcomer Dick Johnson showed real strength as they added another notch to their drivers, alongside that for their conquest of Dartmouth. The Cross gave them a stiff battle before bowing, since the only two matches that were decided before reaching the 17th green were the two Crusader wins by John Nagle and Dick Eagan, both easy victories. Eagan will move up much higher on the H.C. roster on the basis of the hot round he displayed against the Institute.

Yesterday Gerry Kierce proved that he won't have a bad aggregation out there on the tennis courts. Sure, Fort Devens (Oops, the U. of Mass.) wasn't figured to be too much trouble, but no one can laugh off a 9-0 triumph without even dropping a single set. Clark tomorrow shouldn't be much tougher than Devens, but Tufts is no soft touch in tennis and even with a good start, the Crusader racqueteers will have to be on their games, individually and in the doubles to get revenge for the loss to the Medford team last season.

NO PITCHING? ? ? OH, YEAH? ? ?

After that injury to Shelly's arm, it looked like the pitching staff on this hill was just something that didn't exist, since he was the sole holdover from the corking mound crew of the '48 season. Things looked black, since the pitching department was the one apparently sure bet on the '48 squad that bounced up and down through a fairly stiff schedule, beating the tough teams and losing to the weak sisters.

However, Matty Formon finally started to show his stuff as has been long predicted around these parts. Matt had been okay against Bridgeport in the preseason exhibition and tossed a neat three hitter against Harvard. That wasn't too bad, even though the Johnnies aren't noted for their batting power. Despite the trouble at Yale, Matt really came through against Colgate with that other three-bingle affair.

Then, Tom Donovan, getting his chance in his last year, nicely put the freeze on Syracuse. This pitching staff hasn't fallen apart by any means, and with that one-two leadoff punch of Bill Porter and Bob Dittmeyer, followed by Eddie Polak's big bat, this club is a long way from being just an also-ran. Again, Dartmouth is a crucial game and a win over the Big Green will put us right back in NCAA contention.

Crusader Sails Torn By Eagles

Dick McCarthy of Cross, With 67 Points, Wins Individual Honors

On the 10th of April the Crusader Sailing Team bowed to a classy Boston College outfit 183-167 in the first of a series of annual dual meets. The winner of the competition, held on the Charles River at M.I.T., was awarded the Mel Spence Memorial trophy. This trophy is in honor of the former commodore of the Purple sailing team who was killed in an automobile accident on August 12 of last year.

Eight races were held as the Eagles won four and tied two, dropping but two contests to the sailors from Holy Cross. The individual honors went to Capt. Dick McCarthy of the Crusader squad. He tallied 67 points in the eight races and his total of three wins also led the field in scoring. Following McCarthy in the scoring were B.C.'s Fred Quirk with 52 points and the Eagles' Captain Tom Hanna with 44. Hanna also ranked in second place in individual wins with two. For the Boston aggregation Quirk and Fran Charles won single victories while for the Purple Clune Walsh had one win.

H. C. Bows Out in N. E.

On the 24th of this month Holy Cross was eliminated in the New England Championship qualifying meet. Three of the six teams entered, Brown, Harvard, and Boston University, qualified. H.C. finished a not-too-distant fourth with New Hampshire and Tufts completing the list of entries. The eliminations held at M.I.T., were highlighted by the individual performance of Brown's Charles Ill who is one of the region's best skippers. Dick McCarthy tied with Pete Putnam of Harvard for second place in individual scoring.

The Holy Cross representatives were McCarthy, Walsh, and Jack Butler. McCarthy ranked in second place on three occasions and third once while Walsh was first in one race and placed third in another team. The scoring: Brown 69, Harvard 68, B.U. 56, Holy Cross 49, New Hampshire 46, Tufts 36.

this game, played in a drizzle and on a muddy field. Making his third start in four games, Formon held up well until the eighth when three hits, a walk and an error gave Yale victory.

In the first inning, when the Cross scored three of their runs, Porter doubled, Dittmeyer reached first on the overthrow of first base and Porter scored. Galvin got a scratch single, Dittmeyer going to second, and scoring a moment later, when Polak forced Galvin at second but the double play attempt went over Bill Lynch's head at first, Polak going around to second. An infield out and a wild pitch by Tom Goodyear, who settled down after that, brought in Polak.

H. C. GOLFERS DROP MATCH TO STRONG BABSON TEAM

Johnson Stars for Visitors; Purple Plays Thrice Next Week; B.C. Date Indefinite

Again finding Babson Institute too strong for an opening match opponent, the Holy Cross golf team bowed to the fledgling economists Monday at Wachusett Country Club by a 5-2 margin.

The visitors, conquerors of the Purple by 7-2 in the opening contest in the 1948 season, boasted a veteran aggregation strengthened by ace newcomer Dick Johnson as their No. 1 man. They had already taken the measure of Dartmouth, perennially one of the powers in New England Collegiate golf circles.

Johnson, who played part of the winter golf circuit in Florida with such topnotch swingers as Dick Chapman and Frank Stranahan, posted a nice 74 to gain medal honors for the day in topping Tracy Mehr, 2 up. Johnson clinched his triumph by taking the 18th hole to edge Mehr, low scorer for the Cross with 77.

Eagan Surprises

Newcomer Dick Eagan proved the most pleasant surprise for H.C. by running third in medal play with a hot 79, though playing in the fourth slot. He routed Jim Alcorn, a veteran player for Babson, 5 and 3. Manager John Nagle chalked up the other victory for the Purple with another easy win in topping Warren Aldrich, 6 and 5.

In the other matches, Crusader Bill Wise also bowed on the final green, losing to Ike Broadbent, 1 up, while the rest of the contests were decided by the end of 17 holes, all going to Babson:

Charley Beckman defeated Bill

Blackham, 2 and 1; Bob Mars defeated Paul McEvoy, 2 and 1; and Bert Hubbard defeated Dave Keaney 2 and 1.

This promises to be a busy week for the Crusader linksmen as they have three matches scheduled. On Friday, April 29, they tangle with Lowell Textile. On May 3 they meet Amherst College. May 2 or 5 will find them crossing clubs with arch rival Boston College.

Lowell Textile is a newcomer on the Purple's slate. The match will take place at the Wachusett Country Club. Nothing is known about the personnel of the Lowell team.

Veteran Amherst Team

Amherst is another new addition to the schedule. The Bay Stators have four returning veterans. Gordon Russell and Graf Mouen are co-captains of the team. Russell was the captain of last year's club which won four and lost ten matches.

Tom Wyman and Mark Munsill are up from the 1948 freshman team. Don Hoestery is beginning his fourth season of college competition and should be a hard man to beat.

The date of the Boston College match is still indefinite. It is tentatively scheduled for either the 2nd or 5th of May. This match will be staged at the Commonwealth Country Club in Newton. B.C. has probably the best team in New England and the Cross will have to be at their finest to beat them. The star of the club is Harry Ernst who was a finalist in the New England Intercollegiate golf tournament last year. Ernst defeated Tracy Mehr in the semifinal round.

TENNIS TEAM SWEEPS DEVENS MATCH WITHOUT LOSS OF SET, 9-0

Reim, Luby and Kierce Capture Easy Triumphs In Singles; Netters to Face Clark and Tufts

After close to three weeks of practice sessions which were interrupted by the Easter vacation the Holy Cross tennis team opened its season yesterday on the campus courts by blanking the University of Mass. (Ft. Devens), 9-0. Seven veterans from last year's squad were razor sharp as they lost not a single set to the Devens team. Fred Feuerbach was the only newcomer as the teams took to the courts.

Feuerbach started off the match opposing Jack McDevitt of Devens. Featuring a fine wrist shot and a good backhand he defeated McDevitt, 6-2, 6-2. Fred lived up to his reputation of being the most deceptive man on the squad as he caught his opponent off guard time after time.

Frank Reim took up where Feuerbach left off as he downed Sy Stone in straight sets 6-0, 6-1. With every type of stroke in the book Frank breezed through to victory.

Don Taggart was Bill Luby's victim as the Cross netman ran him ragged winning 6-2 and 6-0. Taggart couldn't follow Bill's spinning service and couldn't fathom his fast-driving game.

John Walsh had no trouble in his first set against Martin Selig, defeating him 6-2 but he had to go all out to win the second, 7-5. Lefty John played his usual slow game, finally outlasting his opponent.

Manager Gerry Kierce hardly worked up a sweat in beating Joe Cassidy 6-0 and 6-2. Gerry's hard service was working to perfection as he played his usual consistent game.

Day-hop Pete Harrity made sure that the Purple had a complete sweep in the singles matches as he defeated Art Whitney 6-1 and 6-4. Whitney threatened in the second set but Harrity finished very fast.

With a sweep of the singles the Cross team aimed at blanking the Devens team and did just that as the doubles combinations swept to three straight victories.

Feuerbach and Reim defeated McDevitt and Stone 6-2 and 6-2. The Crusader combination could do nothing wrong as Reim played a fine net game.

Walsh and Kierce kept up the Purple surge by downing Taggart and Selig in straight sets 6-2 and 6-2.

Ed Twomey and Bob Mann ended the match with a victory over Cassidy and Kilcoyne 6-2 and 6-2. Mann was particularly valuable at the net and used his speed to advantage.

Meet Clark and Tufts

With one match already in their systems the Purple netmen are ready for the difficult schedule that lies ahead. They go across town to clash with Clark tomorrow afternoon and on Saturday they meet Tufts here at the College.

Clark is reported to have a rather weak team this season. The Crusaders blanked them a year ago 6-0 and since both teams have practically the same personnel the Cross is highly favored.

Last year down at Tufts, the Purple team was defeated 5-4 in grueling match. The team looks upon Saturday as a day of revenge and figure to defeat the Jumbos.

other injury as he cooled their bats with a measly two hits.

The Crusaders started off as if they were determined to make the contest a runaway. Bill Porter opened the game with a sharp single and Bobb Dittmeyer immediately tripled him home. Frank Galvin fanned but the rally was only cut short by a nice play by Syracuse centerfielder Walt "Slivers" Slovanski, who snagged a liner off the bat of Eddie Polak and tossed a perfect strike to Catcher Bob Ferris to nail Dittmeyer trying for the plate.

The Orangemen tied things up in the last half of the second inning. Joe Frechette let a fly by George Jarvis elude him and was charged with a two base error. Third Baseman Ken Johnson then garnered the first safety off Donovan, a long single scoring Jarvis.

scoring with two runs in the second inning, but a Holy Cross single in the second, and three in the fourth gave the Crusaders a 4-2 lead. There was no more scoring until the big fifth. The Academy again took a short-lived lead, only to be swamped by five Crusader runs in the bottom of the fifth, and the score was 10-5.

The Hilltoppers threatened again in the seventh, but their two run surge was not enough, making the score 10-7. The Freshmen piled on three more runs in the eighth to sew up the contest.

Joe Christopher, the Academy's sharp backstop, got four out of five to lead the hit parade for the afternoon. Lonergan attempted to aid his own cause with two hits, while Acting Captain Johnny Turco, Jack Concannon, Bob Manning, Dick Heon, and Dilling of the Cross also had two hits apiece. Heon, Concannon, and Turco all included triples in their barrages.

FIRST OUTDOOR MEET SATURDAY

Track Team Set for B.U., Harvard, Northeastern

With a promising squad rounding rapidly into shape, HC's venerable track mentor, Bart Sullivan, is looking forward to a successful season this spring. The Purple tracksters will engage in their first outdoor meet next Saturday when they vie with the representatives of Boston University, Northeastern and Harvard at Soldiers' Field in Cambridge.

Harvard, the host team in this quadrangular meet, will rule the favorite on the basis of its strong showings against Boston College and Rhode Island State, especially in the field events. BU's power, much like that of the Cross, lies in the running events while Northeastern has shown little strength except in the high jump, where the Huskies' Willette is a prohibitive favorite.

The Purple's chief hopes for victory will be carried by New England sprint champ Bill Gould in the 100 and 220 yard dashes and Sophomore Dick Ahern in the half-mile and mile runs. Ahern's strongest competition should come from Fitzgerald of BU and the Crimson's Dave Hamblett. Co-captain George Finn will present an additional threat in the middle distance runs while the Crusaders' chances in the dashes will be bolstered by Frannie Murphy who has shown great improvement in recent workouts.

Close Quarter Mile

One of the most closely contested races of the afternoon may develop when the Purple's Barry Reed engages BU standout Kenny Charles in the quarter mile. The Terrier star is a veteran of several indoor invitation meets where he faced many of the country's top performers.

Holy Cross will be represented by George McVey in the two-mile run where strong opposition is expected from Bob Foley of Boston U.

Harvard figures to rule the roost in the field events with such stalwarts as Bob Forsyth in the hammer throw, Charles Keith in the javelin and Geoff Tootell in the discus and shot put. The hurdles, Dan Kelley in the high jump, Tom O'Donnell and Bill Feeney in the 880, and Ed Finn in the broad jump.

The Cross sewed up the fray in the fourth. Bob Heon singled and then swiped second. Joe Frechette pushed him along to third with a short one base knock and John "Red" Coyle chased him across the platter with a sky scraping fly ball to center.

Spring Football Practice Ends

Long Scrimmage Marks Final Workout; Turco Outstanding Back

On Tuesday, April 12, the football team concluded its Spring practice session with an hour and one-half long game scrimmage. This was the third and most impressive scrimmage of the last week of practice. The coaches expressed great satisfaction over the amount of work accomplished and are highly optimistic for the outlook for next year.

The last scrimmage of practice found all the men putting forth their best efforts. The two teams were very evenly matched as witnessed by the final score of 12 to 12. Johnnie Turco was the outstanding back in action as he scored one touchdown after catching a flat pass and sprinting 68 yards while eluding the entire secondary along the way. Later he went 55 yards before being caught on the ten-yard line. Both runs were featured by good blocking, but Turco still gave one of the best exhibitions of broken field running seen around here in many a moon. The other touchdowns were scored by Mel Massucco, Dave Cook, and Jim MacDougald. Mel scored his touchdown after a five-yard plunge while Dave Cook hit paydirt on a 71-yard scamper. MacDougald caught a 17-yard pass from Bill Dechard in (Turn to Page Ten)

Crusader hopes will be borne on the strong shoulders of George (Iron man) Gallogly who is entered in both the javelin and the discus.

The Cross' chances for an upset will be further enhanced by the efforts of such contenders as Dick Eagan.

PROVIDENCE, B.U. ON SLATE FOR CROSS THIS COMING WEEK

Providence College's win-hungry Friars will invade Fitten Field Saturday afternoon in an attempt to break into the victory column against the Crusaders.

The loss of heavy hitting Ralph Mattera, who was declared ineligible for college competition by the NCAA, has taken much of the sting out of the Providence attack. The Friars' top hurler, lefty Tommy Keenan, could handcuff his occasional wildness, however, and make it rather difficult for our boys to reach the pay station.

The Friars are still looking for that first win. In their first game they collected but two hits and lost to the Bridgeport Bees 8-2. The next day they collected five hits against Yale but bunched three of them behind three walks in the opening inning to drive out the Eli's sophomore sensation Bob DeCoursey with four runs. Some faulty fielding behind Keenan in the seventh permitted Yale to tie the score. Keenan then wild-pitched the winning run home in the ninth.

Coach Larry Drew has improved his defense since then, however, and the hitting abilities of Ted Mezejewski, Jim Sullivan, and Ed Mooney could prove very irksome to the Purple moundsmen.

Next Wednesday Jack Barry will lead his charges into Boston to tangle with the Terriers of Boston University. Coach Collard of the Terriers prides himself on his pitching staff which is headed by veterans Bill Tighe and Ev Dorr. The BU boys also claim that they have another Walt Dropo in Sophomore Saul Sherman who can hit a ball a country mile.

pop fly in right and Polak took third. The Purple backstop scored as Joe Frechette hit a grounder to third and was thrown out.

Sophomore Bob Dittmeyer, still in the throes of a hitting skein, tallied the final and clinching run by some heads-up baserunning in the opening half of the sixth. Dittmeyer opened with a sharp single to center, then romped all the way to third as Co-fate Catcher Phil Sanford threw wild to first trying to catch the tantalizing Mr. D. off base. After Frank "Lefty" Galvin walked, Koblinski, still up in the air, heaved a wild pitch and Dittmeyer trotted over the plate with the deciding counter.

The Red Raiders finally broke the ice in the bottom half of the same stanza, also using but one hit in the process. Koblinski singled and moved up as Bob Heon bobbled Bruce Gardner's grounder. Ed Gergel walked to load the bases. Koblinski scored the run as Galvin scooped up Dave Busfield's bouncer and got the batter at first.

Donovan Stops Orange

On the preceding day, the Crusaders had to whip the weatherman, injuries and Syracuse to capture the ball game. After seeing the game temporarily postponed due to wet grounds and then starting it, the travelling Knights were forced to be satisfied with a six inning fracas as the rain returned to write finish to the abridged set-to.

Dick Shellenbach, the only returning starter from the '49 pitching staff, retired the first man to face him and then retreated himself with pulled muscles in his right pitching arm, an injury that will probably sideline him for the balance of this season.

Tom Donovan took over for the disabled ace and promptly caused the Saline City Warriors to wish for an-

WCHC SPOTLIGHT

By DICK LARKIN

After a twelve day recess, Station WCHC, the "King of the Kilocycles", returns to the airwaves for a final three weeks of pleasurable entertainment. For in the middle of May, "645 on your dial" will officially sign off and close its portals for the summer.

Tonight, from 9 until 9:30, Sammy and Lord Angelo provide their weekly share of top-notch melodies. Always a listening treat, Sam sings and Angy plays the accordion. Both boys also display their mastery of the keyboard.

Tomorrow night, the second in a series of six "Knights of Columbus" broadcasts will be aired from 9:15 'til 9:30. Its title will be "Freedom From Want in Our Future Democracy". A transcribed program, this special release originated in New Haven, Conn. "Bandland" and Rick O'Shea share the honors from 10 until 10:50 p.m., providing the best in popular recordings.

Monday, 8:05 until 8:15, Warren B. O'Connor, Holy Cross attache of domestic and foreign affairs, gives his analysis of the news. He is followed by another special feature at 9:15, at which time the third of the "Knights of Columbus" broadcasts is to be presented. This transcription will treat of another aspect of our "Democracy of the Future."

Popular and semi-classical keyboard arrangements are on the docket from 9 'til 9:15, Tuesday evening, John Stavola presiding. Then, for the following fifteen minutes, the weekly Quiz Show will be presented, with contestants chosen from Alumni Hall. To climax this night of top entertainment, the Crusader Hit Parade takes the spotlight at 9:30, for thirty minutes of the best of current musical selections as calculated by the WCHC campus survey.

Another in the present series of labor lectures will be conducted on Wednesday evening at 9 p.m. At the time of this writing, however, the speaker has not been announced. Then, at 10:15, Phil O'Rourke sits before the WCHC "mike" to present the weekly Holy Cross Sportscast, a colorful and vibrant picture of Crusader athletics right up to the moment.

Alumni IIA Whips Carlin IIB, 35-25 To Capture Intramural Championship Beaven IIIA and Wheeler IIA Defeated Handily In Semi-Finals; Tracy Mehr Paces Champs

Hail to the champions! Alumni IIA climaxed the 1948-49 intramural basketball season April 11 when they copped a hard-fought 35-25 win over Carlin IIB to capture the league championship. In winning the title Alumni eliminated Beaven IIA and Wheeler IIB.

The final game of the post season playoffs was simply a case of too much Alumni height and weight for the Carlinites to overcome. Alumni jumped out to a 12-10 lead at the first quarter stop and gradually increased their lead to the final ten-point margin. With Bill Stetter and Ed Jurgieliewicz, Alumni took a slim 22-19 halftime lead.

Both teams lost their collective shooting eyes in the third period. Carlin scored only two points, a one-lander by Dick Cusack. The Alumni attack also stalled and they could manage only five points, three of these by center Ed Jurgieliewicz. The poor shooting luck continued in the last quarter which saw the Juniors outscore Carlin eight points to four. The Alumni scoring was pretty well divided as every man in the lineup broke into the scoring column. Tracy Mehr was high man for the winners with 11 points. Dick Cusack and Vin Clark with 8 and 6 points respectively paced Carlin.

In the semi-final games Alumni ousted Beaven IIIA, 56-46, and Carlin eliminated Wheeler IIA 45-26.

Alumni rallied from a three-point first quarter deficit to coast to victory over the Beavenites. Beaven started strong, held a 12-9 lead at the end of the first period. Then Tracy Mehr took over and dropped in seven points to put Alumni out in front. Despite some spectacular one-hand shooting by lanky Arnie Hamel, Alumni, clung to their slim lead and the half ended with Alumni on the long end of a 25-23 score.

The third period was the turning point in the game as Alumni outscored the losers 19-12. Tracy Mehr with 12 points and Jack McCarthy with 10 spearheaded the Alumni attack. Jim Conway and Arnie Hamel each caged 12 points in a losing cause.

Carlin gained a berth as a finalist by rolling over an outmanned Wheeler IIA Club 45-26. The slick ball handling Wheeler team made a fight out of it in the first half and trailed by only three points, 15-12, at the 20-minute mark. Carlin broke out in a deluge of buckets in the second half to outscore the sophomores 30-14. Cusack was the games top scorer with 19 points.

the end zone for his score.

Bob Doyle, besides being a good running back, also excelled on defense and especially in blocking. Dechard has improved his passing and ball handling greatly while still being a tower on defense. He is easily one of the most improved men on the club.

The linemen who impressed in these scrimmages were Bill Petroski and Stan Bohdiewicz at the tackles, Hank Beaulieu and Norm Zolkos at the guards, Jim MacDougald and Tom McCann at the ends, and Dick Murphy at center.

Other backs who impressed in this and the three other scrimmages were Bob Farrell, Bob Doyle, and Dechard. Farrell, who played every min- and Beaulieu played their usual good games while Jim MacDougald has looked very well at his new end position.
